Warsaw, February 8. N. S.

THE last Letters from Lembergh tell us, That after the Commissioners had sat several days, and the Accommodation with the Confederated Forces seem'd to be in a good forwardness, the Deputies from the latter had again excepted against the Crown-General, and some other of the Commissioners, as Persons to whose Determination in the Matters now depending, they could not submit themselves; and it being answer'd, That it did not belong to them to give Laws to the Republick; the said Deputies went away, with a Protestation against their Proceedings: The Commissioners hereupon resolved to send some from among themselves to the Confederated Forces, to acquaint them with what had passed, and to exhort them to Peace; and ordered an account of their Proceedings to be dispatched to the several Provinces, and to be made publick for the Information of the People. We hear already that there appears a great Disunion in the Confederated Army, some approving the Conduct of their Deputies, and others wholly disliking it, and declaring they will Treat for themselves, and chuse Deputies of their own for this purpose; But the Crown-Treasurer Lubomirski, and the Bishop of Plosko, endeavour all they can to hinder this Resolution, and to that end distribute Money among them, which is supplied underhand by the French Ambassador. Prince James continues in the mean time in Silesia; and the Queen prepares to leave this Place. We have advice, That a strong Body of Tartars are come into Valachia, and 'tis much apprehended they intend to make an Incursion into our Frontier Provinces during the next light Moon.

Vienna, Feb. 13. Prince Lewis of Baden has since his arrival here been present at several Conferences about the Affairs of the War; His Highness intends to return to Germany about the end of this Month; and all things are preparing for an early Campaign, as well in Hungary, as on the Rhine. 'Twas said the last week, That a Party of Turks, belonging to the Garison of Temeswaer, had Surprized Chonad, but there are Letters come since from those Parts, by which it appears to be a groundless Report. The Emperor has sent Commissaries to Hungary, to provide Magazines in several Places near the Danube, and has given Orders for repairing the Bridge of Essecke, which has been very much ruined since this War. The Turks becoming sensible that their ill Usage of the Radziens has driven them out of their Dominions, to seek Protection within the Territories of the Emperor and Republick of Venice, they are now endeavouring to bring them back again, with promises of better Treatment for the future. Count Harack, the Emperor's Envoy to the Court of Spain, is still here, having delayed his Departure, by reason of the badness of the Weather. General Caprara is not yet arrived from Hungary, though he has been expected for some time: 'Tis thought his great Age, and ill state of Health, will hinder his going any more into the Field to Command the Army in Hungary.

Francfort, Feb. 20. The Deputies of the Circle of the Upper Rhine are now assembled here, and have taken the necessary Resolutions about furnishing their Quota of the Forces, which the Six Circles are to bring into the Field this Summer; and the Deputies of the Electors on the Rhine are to meet here to morrow. The Allies provide Magazines at Hailbron and other convenient Places. General Thungen continues to visit the German Garisons that lie nearest to the Enemy; and our Troops are every where in so good a Posture, that it seems to have discouraged the French from making any attempt to pass the Rhine, which they much talked of not long ago.

Cologne, Feb. 22. The French make Preparations to go betimes into the Field this Summer, and give out, That they are to have two Armies on the Rhine, one commanded by Mareschal Choiseul, and the other by Mareschal Catinat. The Brandenburgh Troops quartered in this Country, have raised their Recruits as well for the Horse as the Foot, and have received Orders to be in a readiness to march by the first of the next month. The Count de St. Maurice, Governor of Bon, has Summoned in the Country People of the Neighbourhood, to work on the Fortifications of that Place; Five Companies marched thither the last week, of the Troops of the Circle, and more will follow in few days to reinforce the Garison. The Troops of the Elector of Palatine are ordered likewise to prepare for a march.

Hamburgh, Feb. 22. They write from Berlin, That the Elector of Brandenburgh intends to depart from thence in the beginning of the next Month, for Prussia, where he will stay till the Election in Poland is over; and that a Body of his Troops are ordered to Encamp near the Frontiers of
